

Michael Redfearn CV

Address: Herne Hill, London

Tel: 0796 770 6262

Email: michael@michaelredfearn.com

Web: www.michaelredfearn.com

Profile

I design and develop web sites from creative concept through to design and code. I have a thorough understanding of usability and standards-based design practices, and I'm passionate about user experience.

Skills

- CSS / HTML
- Photoshop
- Illustrator
- JavaScript, jQuery
- Flash
- WordPress theme design
- Thorough understanding of usability, and standards-based design practices

Professional Experience

Freelance Web Designer - December 2009 to present

Various web and graphic design projects for a range of clients.

Web Designer - September 2009 to December 2009

Contract position, user interface re-design, Virgin Media.

Freelance Web Designer - June 2008 to September 2009

Various web and graphic design projects for a range of clients.

Web Designer - Virgin Media - May 1999 to June 2008

- Design and code user interfaces for standards-based websites and web applications
- Creation of photoshop designs and conversion to CSS and XHTML
- Creation of user interface elements such as buttons and icons for existing internal and external web sites and web applications

- Liaison with third party developers to provide branding resources and information such as colour palettes, CSS files etc. to ensure correct and consistent presentation of the brand
- Creation of animated GIF and flash banner ads for the Marketing Team

Freelance Web / Graphic Designer - Self Employed - August 1997 - April 1999

Various part-time, temporary and freelance jobs to support career change.

Network and software Support Technician - Telewest Communications - April 1995 - August 1997

PC installation, hardware and software installation, equipment purchasing and user support.

Business and Statistical Technician - Contributions Agency - October 1993 - March 1995

Support, implementation and testing of spreadsheet-based decision support systems, statistical analysis of the Organisation's pay system, PC and software training.

Project Assistant / Software Trainer - Dryburn Hospital - June 1992 - September 1992

Project promotion and research, software support and training.

Marketing Assistant - CL Associates - March 1990 - January 1991

Marketing duties, dealing with telephone enquiries, making deliveries.

Computing course - Energy Support Unit - December 1988 - December 1989

City and Guilds in Word Processing, City and Guilds in Information Technology and City and Guilds in Computers and Computing.

Education and Training

University of Northumbria, Newcastle upon Tyne, 1991 - 1993

BTEC Higher National Diploma in Business Information Technology.

Monkwearmouth College of Further Education, Sunderland, 1982 - 1984

A level pass in Art, O level pass in Maths.

Usworth Comprehensive School, Washington Tyne and Wear, 1977 - 1982

O level passes in: English Language, Chemistry, Geography, Biology and Art.

Interests outside of work

My interests outside work include graphic design, environmentalism, food provenance, vegetarian cooking, playing guitar and ornithology.

References

References available on request.